

NPA Programs

NPA Career Board

The NPA Career Board provides exclusive opportunities for both job seekers and employers to find and list career opportunities. Whether seeking employment OR seeking to hire, the NPA Career Board can help.

NPA Awards for Professionalism

The NPA founded the widely acknowledged and the industry's only international Awards for Professionalism, which honor individuals for their outstanding achievements in IT/network computing while meeting the values of ethical professionalism.

Certified Network Professional (CNP)

The Certified Network Professional (CNP) was created by the NPA to recognize IT/Network Professional excellence and a dedication to continuing professional and educational growth.

NPA Professional Content

The NPA provides a platform for members and partners to publish academic white papers, blog articles, vlog videos, etc. on the NPA web site and social media platforms.

NPA Sponsors and Partners

The NPA is proud to work with sponsors and partners, providing an opportunity to reach members through Public Webinars, Member Advocator Meetings and Workshops.

The NPA helped me learn how to clarify and focus my career goals, then provided the tools and resources I needed to achieve them!

About Us

The NPA's focus is to support and promote the role of the Ethical IT/Network Professional. Information about current activities and benefits may be found by visiting the NPA website at www.npa.org.

Where IT/Network Professionals Gather

The Network Professional Association (NPA) is a leading organization for IT and Network Professionals, promoting professional development, career development, and a code of ethics for all its members.

Established in 1993, the NPA seeks to support and promote the role of IT and Network Professionals by providing opportunities for continual growth through monthly virtual Public Webinars and Member Advocator meetings, workshops, and networking events, details of which can be found on the www.NPA.org website.

The NPA as a Professional Association is more than a user group as we represent and advocate for the Ethical IT Network and IT Professionals in government, academia, technology, business, and industry, non-profits, and media.

The NPA provides the resources to facilitate your career development, and interests while serving the mutual needs of the IT network computing industry at large.

The NPA is dedicated to inclusion, diversity, and equity among members. Enhance your career potential with the NPA Today!

Where IT/Network Professionals Gather

The NPA emphasizes professional ethics and continuing professional, educational and career development. We mentor each other to share the secrets, improve skills, and network with other IT/Professional members globally.

Being an NPA member shows you strive for excellence as an ethical IT/Network Professional

To be identified as true professionals, NPA members adhere to a code-of-ethics, with continual professional development, knowledge and acceptance of the latest best practice and standards in the IT/Network profession and striving for continual growth.

The NPA is not a destination but provides resources for your career journey.
